the card. In making the journey they exposed themselves to one of the worst rain storms that has visited this latitude in many days. It was from the southeast, and it blew with hurricane force. Umbrellas were of no account, and the miserable vehicles at the Jersey side to convey passengers to the track leaked like sieves, and drenched in the most artistic manner nine-tenths of those who were in them. The arrival at the g ounds of the first five hundred was at the height of the gale, and the few stoves in the grand stand were immediately surrounded by the more active of the earliest comers, who remained hugging them until the rain let up a trifle, which was during the third event. The wind at times struck the grand stand so violently it shook and rocked in a way that alarmed some of the old

It wasn't fit weather, in a word, for either man or beast to be out, but still there were fair fields that ploughed through the sea of mud, while the jockeys were wat to the skin and chilled to the bone. Starter Caldwell was sick and couldn't attend. His place was taken by J. C. Carr. Seven went to the post in the opening event of one mile and Burnside, the favorite, wan handly. Six responded to the second race of five furiouss and Lamar, the first choice, won at will. Yen Buren was thought to be a good thing, and after going a quarter of a mile looked dangerous, but he balked at the head of the stretch and finished last. Al: Farrew was brought over from Clifton to win the third event, one mile and a furious. Prince Fortunatus was the favorite, but Al Farrow ran well and finished eight lengths to the good. Nine sprinters went for the Si,000 purse hung up in the fourth race of four and a half furiouss. Tipstaff was the choice, but he was practically left at the post. Fencion, 5 to 1, won without great trouble. Mine also came together in the fifth race, six and a half furious, and Chanceller, 3½ to 1, was first home. The last race was rus in the sunshine, the storm having broken, and Neptunus landed the money. He was an equal favorite with Repeater, the latter being third at the finish. Details follow:—

> After a short discussion yesterday Messrs. Spalding and Day were chosen to meet Messrs. Talcott and McAlpin, who will be elected at a meeting this afternoon of the Players' League club, at Judge Bacon's office in the Mills Building. Besides dis-cussing the subject of players the two committees that meet to-morrow will also consider the election of the new officers of the club and may also make a final settlement regarding the grounds to be used this season by the Giants. As has been already stated in the Herald, all League clubs must send in a list of the players they desire to retain this year to the National Board some time before February 9; consequently immediate action by the New York club has been necessitated.

CONCERNING THE MAKE UP OF THE GIANTS. There have been many guesses at the probable make up of New York's baseball nine next sum make up of New York's baseball nine next sum mer, but few of them have been at all accurate. I have it on the best authority, however, that these men will wear Gotham uniforms this year:—Tim Resfe. Mickey Wolch, Amos Rusie, Jack Sharrott, pitchers; Buck Ewing, Buckley and Clarke, catchers; Connor, first base; Richardson, socond base; Donny, third base; Richardson, socond base; Donny, third base; Glascock, short stop; Gore, Johnston, Tiernan and Slattery, outfielders. My informant says that Jim O'Rourke will not be retained because he is not popular with certain players in the club. If this array of players is chosen it will throw upon the market some excellent men. Bill Brown, Ed Crane, Hank O'Day, Whistier, Basest, Hornung, Burkett, Whitney, Hatfield, O'Rourke and Pat Murphy will find plenty of clubs in need of their services.

The expected trouble by some individuals is in the placing of Glassocck, Denny, Rusie and Buckley upon the same team with the old Brotherhood players. The owners of the New York club, however, say that those players who are disposed to create ill feeling and who do not work for the club's interests all the time will be immediately relieved of their positions.

In talking to a Brotherhood player recently I learned that while there was considerable feeling among Brotherhood men against the so-called desectors who stuck by the National League, there was also a tendency to forget the past and play ball for the good of the game. While at the start some of the Brotherhood men in the New York club may feel a little hot under the collar when they walk out upon the field with their old comrades who stuck by John B. Day there is every possibility that time will work a change in their demeanor. What New York wants is a ball team composed of winning, hard working players, who care little for sentiment and personal feelings, but who are ever anxious to land New York in the leading position of the National League race. mer, but few of them have been at all accurate. STEINITZ AGAIN

CHESS CHAMPION.

Defeating Gunsberg in the Great Match for the World's Honors at the Manhattan Club.

THE NINETEENTH GAME A DRAW.

Six Victories Scored by the American Master to Four by the English Expert

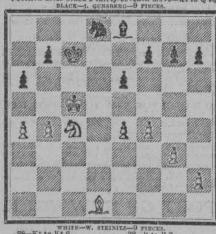

HE nineteenth game of the chess contest for the championship of the world gave that title and honor to William Steinitz, of America, Mr. Gunsberg. of England, being dofeated by two games. The match called for twenty games, and the result was:--Mr. Steinitz, 6; Mr. Gunsberg, 4, and drawn, P. Yesterday's game, which, like the preceding sighteen, was played at the Manhattan Chess Club rooms, found the American champion in such a favorable position that he had only to draw one of the two remaining games in order to win the match. Under these circumstances he was well justified in playing a safe game, which he did by adopting a queen's gambit.

Queens were exchanged early and on the twentythird move the rooks, too, were off the board. Mr. third move the roots, too, were off the board. Mr. Steinitz offered a draw, which Gunsberg declined to accept. As the position did not show any possibility for black to obtain any advantage he adopted a desperate course by retiring his minor pieces, in ducing white to advance his pawns. But soon he was aware of the danger, for if any one could move it was white, and on the forty-second move he declared to accept the draw, to which Steinitz agreed, as it gave him the match and once more the undisputed championship of the world. The game lasted two hours and three-quarters, of which the defence consumed one hour. The score of the game follows:—

GOOD BOXING IN GREENPOINT. The Standard Athletic Club, of Greenpoint, held its inaugural boxing tournament last night at Turn Hall, on Greenpoint avenue, in the presence of an audience that filled the hall. The bouts were, as a rule, well contested, but there seemed to be a disposition on the part of the seconds and spectators to run the show, which is hardly the way to conduct a boxing tournament successfully. The finals will take place to-morrow evening at the

The first bout was in the 115 pound class, and was between William McDonaid, of the Nonparell A.C., and John Kierney, of the Down Town A.C. McHonaid easily received the judges' decision. "Bob" Relluy of the Standard A.C., defeated J. J. O'Brien, of the Williamsburg A.A., in the second bout in this class, after a close contest. burg A.A., In the second bout in this class, after a close cuntest.

The first pair in the 105 pound class were J. B. Mekeagan, of the Star A.C., and "Denny" Bary, of the Falmetto A.A. McKeagan received the verdict.

The second bout in the same class was between Frank Fitzpatrick, of the Nonpartel A.C., and "Bob" UToole, of the Down Town A.C. The former won.

J. Spiez, of the Clinton A.C., and William Meyers, Park A.C., were the first to appear in the 125 pound class. Spiez had the best of it, but, fighting foul, the referee disqualified him and gave the best to Meyers.

The second bout in this class was between William McGuire, of the Standard A.C., and J. Roche, of the Star A.U. Mediure nearly knocked his man out in the first round with a terrific right hand swing. Roche receivered himself and did splendid work in the next two rounds and received the declation.

Then Charles Jackson, of the Palmette A.C., and 25 pound class, if the Clinton A.C., appeared in the 125 pound class, if the Clinton A.C., appeared in the 125 pound class, if the Clinton A.C., appeared in the 125 pound class, the clinton A.C., appeared in the 125 pound class, the Clinton A.C., appeared in the 135 pound class, the Clinton A.C., appeared in the 135 pound class, the Clinton A.C., appeared in the 135 pound class, the Clinton A.C., appeared in the 136 pound class, the Clinton A.C., appeared in the Sullivan.

RAIDED THE DOWN TOWN A.C. The neatly furnished rooms of the Down Town Athletic Club, which is located directly above the beer saloon formerly kept by the late Billy O'Brien and Assemblyman Timothy D. Sullivan, of the Sixth ward, was raided last night by Captain Mc-Cullagh, of the Sixth precinct, for holding a boxing exhibition and charging an admission without a charter. Fully two hundred sports crowded the rooms to the doors in response to an advertisement that they would hold a colored boxing tournament, at which some of the best dusky talent of this and adjoining cities would apdusky talent of this and adjoining cities would appear.

Just as "Jack" Shea and "Dick" Rover were pummeling each other, to the delight of the audience, Captain McCullagh appeared in the doorway. He first ordered all hands to leave the rooms and was going to arrest the bruisers, but changed his mind. The demand of the Captain didn't suit some of the sports, who defied the Captain, but a taste of his night stick brought them to their senses, and they moved out rather lively. A lawyer, well known in the downtown districts, who was present, openly denounced the Captain's action, which he deemed an outrage, and said that lie hat no business whatever to raid the club rooms. The members and many of the indignant persons who were hustled into the street stood in small groups in front of the building discussing the matter until they were chasted away.

JERSEY FISHERMEN BALKED. Fishermen in and near Vernon township, in Sussex county, N. J., are greatly interested just now in a move that has been made to prevent them from enjoying their favorite pastime. The Decker pond, which lies north of McAfee, has always been an attractive point for fishermen, and large catches of pickered through the ice have already been made there this winter.

Now it appears that Mr. John G. Truesdell, of Newark, N. J., claims to own the pend. An advertisement in a local paper, which is signed by Mr. Truesdell, emphatically says.—'I forbid fishing in my lake (Decker pend) in Vernon township. I now mean business, and shall see whether or not a man can control his own property.

tures to any one, and he has been sued by General Diss Debar in the Supreme Court, who seeks to recover the value of the pictures and $1,000 damages for their retention.

Assistant Corporation Counsel Cowan yesterday moved before Judge Lawrence, in Supreme Court, Chambers, to have Mme. Diss Debar and Mr. Valkenburgh made parties to the suit in place of Property Clerk Harriot. John D. Townsend opposed the motion, and the Judge reserved his decision.
